Read carefully...

It's no joke David, we are confident in our claims after fully reviewing your actions, practices and getting testimony from people you interacted with here and in the Philippines.

We have been building a case in all companies against you for months. We have hired a controller to examine your work. The books are a total mess, and the cost of getting into compliance has been expensive. I feel you are liable for this financially. We have found over 200,000 in documented mistakes so far and losses.

Not to mention the extra expense incurred to rainbow slushie for the audit you never did while on a trip paid for by us. All of this cost and extra expenses are recoverable. This is just the tip of the iceberg.

Where can we serve you, you can see for yourself

We are happy to send you copies if you want to proceed down the legal path, if you have a lawyer we can send the documents to them.

If you don't want us to sue you

You, your lawyer or advisor should call Eugene and offer some solution

That's why you contacted us right because you have a claim, we feel we have a claim also that is why your services were no longer needed.

Also it Sounds like you need money being unemployed and spending money going on vacation. And I am sure you don't want to have some large legal bills eating into whatever you put aside. We really don't want to force you into bankruptcy because of some misunderstanding on your part. This is a distraction to us.

If you don't want to wind up getting sued from two contents I suggest you call Eugene and explain your case, and he will explain ours. If there is anything in it for us I am sure we can come to some kind of binding agreement that addresses all of our concerns. If not get a lawyer and we will see you in court.

George
